Burton Cummings, Meanin' So Much

Oh, sweet, sweet, sweet lovin' babe, how'd I ever let you go? Miss you more as the years go rollin' by And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know You lied when I looked you straight in the eye

But oh, you're meanin' so much Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now Oh, meanin' so much to me

Ask me how well, how well that I remember, nights in September Lying holding each other's lovin' charms
And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know I found you in someone else's arms

But oh, you're meanin' so much Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now Oh, meanin' so much to me

I know it's useless, I know it's impossible, I've tried Can't seem to drink you out of my mind No sense in lookin', no sense in comin' crawlin' on back Knowing what it is that I'd find, what I'd find...

Oh night comes falling, bringing darkness again Bringing teardrops to another lonely man And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know When you loved me you would love me and then you ran Yes you did, now.

But oh, you're meanin' so much Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now Oh, meanin' so much to me
