

Bush, Bomb

Wanted to buy you shiny red things thought i'd be with you til the end how did i know that i would be there blow me away
see if i care
death of a future
goodbye to my friends
wish i could see you all again
family hollow
family real
wish you were here see how i feel kill a man
kill a girl
kill a man
kill a girl
jekyll in you
brings out the wired in me i have no defense
i'm all that you see
the night is a bomb blast
the night is on fire sing with me in the gasoline choir and you say you want to change our minds i've paid for your belief with mine of all the bravest stands in time you stoop so low you will never rise
