I was trying fight the wolves in You
And you didn't know your bites are cruel
It was hard to feel so fresh and new
For you to
For you to

Running through the jungle full of moods
In the fury of stampeding bulls
Haven't notice it was full of fruits
Underneath our boots

Inside of you, I'm searching for you
Between the thorns I found the truth

Refren

2 Zwr.

I have searched through the ancient maps
Trying to divide good from bad,
I have gone to take a distance trails to get out
From our past

In the woods that's full of mystery,
Found an oak of our history,
Didn't know it was so tall and green
To the sky, rooted deep

Inside of you, I'm searching for truth
It scuff my veins, the sap pours
I want to know, don't want to rue
Between the thorns I finally found You
