

Busta Rhymes, Do For Self

Hey yo!
Yo sham!
Yo sham!!!
-yo,yo,yo!
Come here nigga, wassup man?
-whats the deal, son?
How you doin man?
-chillin man
What you fkin with that cat over there for?
-he is my nigga, son.
Nahah, don't fk around with that nigga, yo.
-what you sayin,god?
I know that nigga--
-what? I gotta hold it down for my homes, son
Lemme talk to ya for a second,man, c'mere, c'mere

I been through bullshit, forced to pull shit at the enemy
If I did it homes, it was the end of me
Back in the days, i'ma say like around your age
-what makes you figure that?
Yo, I used to move the same ways
Carying guns, sell a nickle chums to bums
Run away from home, running through the streets with a chrome
-nigga, fk that, you see I'm livin on my own
-my life is based on the same place and the same zone
-thugs call me the don, but never feel my calm
-at the same time you know it's hard for me to stay on Yeah I'm feelin ya, but at I gotta keep it real with ya
Only when you got dough, niggas wanna be with ya
They feel ya out, find out about your whereabouts
Best friends turn enemies, plotting to take you out
-but it's all good, be'cause they show me love in tha hood
-i got this shit locked,don't worry bout it. lemme cross ya out

Chorus:

Hey yo, I walk by myself,i die by myself
'cause ain't nobody gonna help me but my goddamn self
I do for my self,make moves for my self
'cause ain't nobody gonna help me but my goddamn self
I walk by myself,i die by myself
'cause ain't nobody gonna help me but my goddamn self
I do for my self,make moves for my self
'cause ain't nobody gonna help me but my goddamn self

Verse 2:

You see them cats that you run with, they allways in some dumb shit
I'm tellin you right now, them cats shouldn't fk with
-now who the fk is you? to tell me what to do?
-tryin to start some real shit, tryin to make me flip on my crew
Go ahead and play hardass! live your life fast
Tryin to warn you, seem like these streets got you gassed
-i got a problem right now, and I can't maintain
-i got some big time cat tryin ta split my fame
-yo, you see me in the street and wanna scream my name
-with some caked up voice, yo I made my chioce
-tim and his boys foul plans was to leave me moised

-so I stood up,prayin to God that this ain't my last luck
-yo they got me judged, call tha blue cross cops ran up freeze!!!
-say please don't move too much, I think my man sat me up
-on a fact(?) shining to much
Left you wet up,same muthafkas used to friend up

Got you hospitalized, look how you end up
Hooked up to a respirator, body all bent up
Your moms callin me at my home, cryin on the phone
Why the fk you didn't listen? wouldn't be in this position
You still breathing, a chance to change the way you living
-no more claiming the streets, I got a daughter to raise
-if I would've listened to you, I would never have got blaised
-now I'm fked up, laying in this bed cramped up
-needles in my arm, thinkin how these cats play tough
-real thoughts in my head, oh how I showed 'em love
-fk it, from now on gotta keep my shit real calm
-plans to move up outta there, and grab my family to be gone

Chorus

chorus playin in the background while they talks

Yo...sham?

-yo..

The streets ain't no muthafkin joke, nigga

-yo, son, see what they did to my fkin leg, son?

I'm tired of that bullshit, I'm sorry--

-can't even lift my shit no more.

You believe in tha lord now, don't ya, muthafka?

-yeah...

When you get outta this bitch,

You better know how to walk the path muthafka.
