

Butch Walker, My Way

So you grew up in a town where everybody's all the same
Like a city full of zombies going by the same name
Saying eat this, wear that, think ya know just where it's at.
When everybody's just alike, now tell me how you deal with that?

This much is true, so here's a finger let me say it

There's the right way, then there's my way
There's a highway, if you don't like it you can take it
So just talk away, I don't hear a word you say
I'll be my way, if you don't like it you can take it

You got the ultimate song, but you're fuckin' up the words
And you're fallin' from the bridge that goes straight into the verse.
They're saying do this, do that, tell ya how to wear your hat
If everyone was just alike, I don't think I could deal with that!

This much is true, so can you hear me as I'm saying

There's the right way, then there's my way
There's a highway, if you don't like it you can take it
So just talk away, I don't hear a word you say
I'll be my way, if you don't like it you can take it

I don't want to, be the one who Does everything like I'm told to
(4x)

There's the right way, then there's my way
There's a highway, if you don't like it you can take it
So just talk away, I don't hear a word you say
I'll be my way, if you don't like it you can take it
