

Butch Walker, Sober

Can you please remind me how you feel.
This emptiness is real.
And I can't bear the thought of it
Can you please remind me how to smile?
I lost track after awhile.
Is happiness so hard to get

Is it me or is this over?
As I got sober I watched you fade away.
Is it me or is this ending?
As I was pretending
I watched you fade away.

I didn't know that time could move so slow.
When you've got nowhere to go.
The silence is so deafening.
Wakin' up, on the wrong side of your mind.
How could I have been so blind?
To see I'm losing everything.

Is it me or is this over?
As I got sober I watched you fade away.
Is it me or is this ending?
As I was pretending.
I watched you fade away.

Sooner or later we gotta stop this elevator.
You go your way and I'll go mine.
I'm sure that I'll be fine.

Is it me or is this over?
As I got sober I watched you fade away.
Is it me or is this ending?
As I was pretending I watched you fade away...

Sober...cause I got sober
Cause I got sober....
I watched you fade.
