

Butterfingers, Pretty Rain pretty rain outside my house come inside do let me out climb up to the sun said heat where everything will almost meet

boast you boast
all the words you hold
stay high, stereotype everything's below us pretty rain pretty rain wear me out i'm inside do let me out trying hard to find my way when it pours don't let me drown pretty rain pretty scared tying ends up in a knot who say down

who thinks he's smart

everything's in

load you load cannons which you blow look deep in so deep cwaling on your toes

stay high, stay up high everything's below up pretty rain my pretty rain (12x)
