

Butterfingers, Still River

Climb up a pole like you're told
Reach the pinnacle top
Ever rose right up high
Like I'm supposed to obey
It's miracle why?
I haven't shown all my stripes
Hey when I think I cannot sleep
Get up' raged I face defeat
When I lost it all somehow
When I think of it
Fill you own waste go away
Never ever look back
Before I spit in your face
Would you agree that the
Strong go eventually weak
Once they've reached out a peak
Hey when I think I cannot leave
Pay off stashed in memories
When I get it all one day
When I think I hate
Never felt so disgraced
Anecdote of complaints
Know that you've been a pain
Cause all the sides are the same
Hey when I think I cannot feel
Killing all my enemies
If I set it off somehow
Then I'll think of it
