

Buzz Poets, Closethead

I think I'm losing my mind
Complacency I can't find (But I can see it)
When life leads me blind
It takes up all of my time (I know I need it)

[CHORUS]

My secrecy doesn't bother me at all
Knowing me only causes me to fall
I've been chased by a sound
That's turning me all around (and now in running)
In life I have found
That loneliness wears the crown (and so I wear it)

[CHORUS]

Staring into a flame
Makes me smile once again (and so I burn it)
Love is a pain
And makes me feel like a stain (so I burn it)

[CHORUS]

Yeah, yeah, yeah
