

BWO, Rythm of the Night

You've been watching the party monsters
You've been watching the way they gleam
Where their faces turn every body burns
You're the object of their regime
They've been cruising the darkest alleys
They've been cruising the cornered streets
With the stars awake give them what they take
Cause they're warriors of concrete.

Now they're banging on your front door
Blowing out the city of light
Then they're conquering the dance floor
Cause their time is right.

Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night .

You've been waiting for the disaster
You've been waiting to join the brawl
With the mirror cracked in this balance act
You're the angel before the fall

Now they're banging on your front door
Blowing out the city of light
Then they're conquering the dance floor
Cause their time is right .

Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night .

Now they're banging on your front door
Blowing out the light.

Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night rhythm of your soul
Rhythm of the night.
