

By Heart, 2004

Don't you know you should never look back, they only want us dead
Even though in a minute or two you might just be ahead
Last year was messy but promises were sweet
Last year was ugly and you were incomplete

When you know that you did your best they say that you're off-peak
Maybe now it's a little too late to turn the other cheek
Your dream is holy and worth the spill of blood
But please don't worry, it's gonna be alright

Anytime you cry
Anytime you smile
Anytime you're lonely
Anytime you cheat
Anytime you lie
You don't have to bother
The year 2004 will be yours

You don't believe in anything
You don't believe in me
You don't believe in fantasies
You don't believe it's real

Anytime you cry
Anytime you smile
Anytime you're lonely
Anytime you cheat
