

By Heart, For The Last Time

Smile, suddenly you smile, you think I changed my mind
But both my hands are tied
Cry, once again you cry, like a wounded child
Tonight has no surprise

For the last time, I'm here
For the last time, my trust you try to tear

I'm gonna be by your side for the last time
I'm gonna swallow my pride for the last time
I'm gonna stand up and fight for the last time
I'm gonna crumble inside for the last time
For the last time

Lay your hand upon my chest, my hand upon your hair
And try to fall asleep
Scream, grab my ears and scream until the words come out now
Until your tongue is numb

For the last time, I lie
For the last time, I promise while I sigh

I'm gonna be by your side for the last time
I'm gonna swallow my pride for the last time
I'm gonna stand up and fight for the last time
I'm gonna crumble inside for the last time
For the last time

For the last time
