

By Heart, You

Save me
Save me with your madness
Starve me like you did the day before

Dreaming
Dreaming of your violence
Tug on me until I'm ripped apart

Before my bubble burst I turn to you
And ask you where to go
Before all hell brakes loose
I hold on to the one who sees me through
Baby it's you

Guard me
Guard me deep in anger
Strike me down in silence when I smile

Promise
Promise me my sentence
Beat me 'til I'll feel nothing at all

Before my bubble burst I turn to you
And ask you where to go
Before all hell brakes loose
I hold on to the one who sees me through
Off course it has to be you

Before my bubble burst I turn to you
And ask you where to go
Before all hell brakes loose
I hold on to the one who sees me through
Baby it's you

Save me
Save me with your madness
Starve me like you did the day before
