

By The Tree, One Drop Of Blood

does it feel good does it feel right in your own eyes you in all your innocence you placed a man do you know what you've done to him the substance to alter your mind you tried to chance your world and in your heart you know what's right but you don't want to lose your life

He came
He Bled
He died
one drop of blood to mend your life (2x)

you sit in the seat of judgment and in your foolish heart you can nail every great move of the Father but your heart it's filled with tears

(chorus)

wont you give your heart to Jesus wont you give your heart to Him wont you give your heart to Jesus He'll forgive you all your sins (2x)

(chorus)
