

By The Tree, Raining Down

i know You're here, You're here with me, and i feel Your touch, Your hand upon me.
and i feel You close, You're closer than the song i sing, and i feel You coming, coming like the rain-
i feel Your prescence falling all around me.

raining down
i feel Your spirit falling all around me now.
raining down
i feel Your spirit falling all around me now.

my true friend, the beginning and the end,
Jesus, You're always there for me.
i just want to see You,
i just want to be with You.

raining down
i feel Your spirit falling all around me now.
raining down
i feel Your spirit falling all around me now.
