

Byeka, Why I Am?

I dare you
To see where it all began
I dare you
To look inside my soul

And you will be
Disgusted by what you see
And you will
Run far away
All because of
Who I am

And you
Don't know anything
Until you
Read into my bloody story

And you will be
Disgusted by what you read
And you will
Blind yourself
All because of
Who I am

//And I
Don't know why I'm still alive
And I
Don't deserve to live at all

And you are
Disgusted by what you know
And you have
Gourged your eyes out
All because of
Who I am

Who I am
Who I am
Why I am
