

C.C. Catch, Born On The Wind

Oh, he is breaking my heart now again
Over and over I'm crying
Down, oh down in my heart
Some day you'll want me
Babe, to want you
Easier said than done for you
Down, oh down in my soul
Baby, down, oh down in my heart

Born on the wind
That's where my heartache blow
Born on the wind
That's where my feelings go
Born on the wind
Oh, running in the night
Born on the wind
Hold back the tears and fight

Tossing and turning
He wants me no more
Tossing and turning before
Down, oh down goes my heart
Never there will be another you
Breaking up, oh you do
Down, oh down in my soul
Baby, down, oh down in my heart
