

Cecilie Norby, Night Road

On the night road
Every lamp post is a landmark
To a traveler
Every stripe on the road is a step closer
As long as the road keeps on going
And the signs keep on showing
There's a haven, a place to travel to
A reason to go on
On this solo ride
Every smile is a landmark
To a loner
Every touch of the hand is a step closer
As long as your heart keeps on beating
And lovers' eyes keep on meeting
There's a haven, a place to travel to
A reason to go on
In this crazy world
A little bit of love will point the way
To a dreamer
Believing is a step closer
As long as your dreams keep on growing
And the wind of hope keeps on showing
There's a haven, a place to travel to
A reason to go on
