C J Stone, Be Loved

Oh don't look back - no more Your time is yet to come No regres - no more You are the chosen one You stumble and you fall But I will be around Whatever it may take I will come along Refren: I will be right behind you I'll protect you You will be my religion My addiction Just be loved Just be loved Yesterday I swore To never let you go After all these years When I was hiding from the ghost When I was colour-blinds Your eyes made me see The very deepest blue Here inside of me. Refren: I will be right behind you I'll protect you You will be my religion My addiction Just be loved Just be loved Refren: I will be right behind you I'll protect you You will be my religion My addiction Just be loved
