

C.K.Y, To all of you

The mirror doesn't look like them I guess it never will
What would you say if I took a piece for me?
Happiness is your best friend it doesn't appeal to me
Have you ever seen me?
As I'm talking and lest you down
I find all you used to be
But you never talk your way
The universe is in your hands it doesn't appeal to me
What would they say if I took a piece for me?
Happiness is your best friend it doesn't appeal to me
Have you ever seen me?
As I'm talking and lest you down
I find all you used to be
But you never talk your way
The mirror doesn't look like them I guess it never will
What would you say if I took a piece for me?
Happiness is your best friend it doesn't appeal to me
Have you ever seen me?
