

C21, Could You Ever

Please forgive what I said all my words I regret hope you never ever let go now I know I needed you so Tears are drowning my heart I need you to tell me tell me baby.....

Could you ever love me again
if I say that Im sorry
could you ever hold me
the way we used to hold eachother would you ever trust me same
if I say that Im sorry
could you ever love me again

I softly whisper your name dont wanna burn out the flame I never ever doubted my mind when theres a mountain to climb

You got the words in your heart
I need you to
tell me tell me baby.....

if I say that Im sorry
could you ever hold me
would you ever trust me same
if I say that Im sorry
could you ever love me again

I want you close closer than close
could you ever love me again
