

C21, If You Could Be Anyone

I dont need to walk away
I dont need to look ahead
Cuz no matter what I do
My life won't change because of you

Cuz evvertime you slam the door
I know that you'll be back for more
Now you really need to realize
You dont have to give me a roar
Now tell me

If you could be anyone
Would you be the one I want
If you could be anyone at all
Who do you wanna be
If you could be anyone would you ever let me down
If you could be anyone at all
Who do you wanna be

Now lets say you know it
Who you really wanna be
Would it change the things you do
And lead to something new

Im not the one to choose
Now it's all up to you
To find a way to realize
What you really wanna do
Now tell me

If you could be.

I just wanna know
Where you wanna go
If you still wanna be there
Youve got to let me know

I dont wanna be the one to tell you girl
Who you got to be got to find your own way
You have to make a choice
To be the one I dream of
