"James Brown"

Microphonies

Cabaret Voltaire

Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

When it comes, it falls in pieces.

Eating holes and gems unbound.

Birds and hearts and flags and everything.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Money matters. Does mercy matter?

Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Money matters. Does mercy matter?

Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Money matters. Does mercy matter?

Suddenly, as things are clearer,

See the sights are getting nearer.

Everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

I said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

When it comes, it falls in pieces.

Eating holes and gems unbound.

Birds and hearts and flags and bugs.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.

Said, everything. Devoured.

I learn to hold my, will power.
