

Cadaveres De Tortugas, Red Room

I stepped into the red room
I waited for the time to meet
Take me with you
I want to leave this shit
I feel you fill my body
Please hold my hand
I'm scarred but in a minute
I'll be a strong man

But why do you want from me more and more
You didn't want to cause me pain before

Do you like to kill? - Look into my eyes!
Would you like to kill me? - Why did you tell me lies?

I'm here again
For the last time, I promise
I want your kind of feeling
You can't leave me like this
But why do you close the door
I'm still here inside
I know the Red room is my cage
And you'll never let me out
