

Cadaveres De Tortugas, Taste My Pain

Yesterday happened something
You've never spoken about
I thought I'm a part of your world
Why did you shut me out?

Promises full of pleasures
Why did you steal the light?
Let the rain wash away
the memories that hurt inside

My revenge will take you over
Taste my pain

First I ran from you
Now I slow down
You can get me but can't get over me
I show you what you've denied

Why do you speak about jealousy if hate is what you feel Taste my pain so warm so sweet
I embrace you to kill
