

Cadence Weapon, House Music lived in 20 houses in the same damn town right around the block use to slang wraps round got it all up, got it all back now it's a haunted house, got sold by the pound if you wanna dance, think about it right now see, i'm not in it yo listen, i'm not in it this song's about beats, streets, i walked in it when hit i get defensive cause he kris-krossed in it i've known who i am for longer than i've remember but that was before i met you, so don't try eject into some old-school memories, they never came up i was never seen clean, so don't get it mixed up y'all know what i'm talking bout when it's time to rock about sock em out, STOP now (ch, ch) i'm in the house

yeah im in the house

i got friends who star for theyselves gold-rimmed cronies with a handful of shells in the next tuesday, i'll line myself with crisp on the CBC, they film me above the hips look at that car i drive, i whip it real good devos, titos, rims, ghost ridin and it feels good no, that ain't "real" hood no that ain't lifestyle i just rap about it so the kids can clap about it i rap about drugs, i do it for my family sold those packs from the back of a Camary (NO) make sure what you write is correct i gotta good eye, now my lines are connect

sock em out, STOP now (ch, ch) i'm in the house

welcome to the club scene half of these rappers thugged it out i've never had fun in the club scene yo i dance real close in the club scene started a real toast in the club scene it's lovely the club scene loves me, i spend my time in it 4 days a week, yo i write my rhymes in it drink "grasshopper" with a couple lines in it i know some bathrooms they did a couple lines in em at the studio i get a couple styles out wait in line for drinks, it's another time out made out on the floor with a couple dames how come i never seem to get what my money is spent?

sock em out, STOP now (ch, ch) i'm in the house
