

Cadet, The Girl

While she speaks I search every word
Hoping that she'll give it away
Or my heart would have to agree
All this could it be a mistake

Oh tell me she's the girl
Oh tell me she's the girl
cause there's no one like her in this world
Tell me she's the girl

Any day the answer will fall
So I'll keep my hands in the air
Is it true the days we're apart will shine on the days that we share

Oh tell me she's the girl
Oh tell me she's the girl
Cause there's no one like her in this world
Tell me she's the girl
Clocks have no hands
Whenever love takes my hand
Oh tell me she's the girl
