Cadet, The Girl

While she speaks I search every word Hoping that she'll give it away Or my heart would have to agree All this could it be a mistake

Oh tell me she's the girl Oh tell me she's the girl cause there's no one like her in this world Tell me she's the girl

Any day the answer will fall So I'll keep my hands in the air Is it true the days we're apart will shine on the days that we share

Oh tell me she's the girl
Oh tell me she's the girl
Cause there's no one like her in this world
Tell me she's the girl
Clocks have no hands
Whenever love takes my hand
Oh tell me she's the girl
