

Cadillac Moon, You'll Never Make Love In This Town

(Campbell, Deery, Hackford,
Noyes, Nugent, Santoriello)

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no shake your rattle in another playpen

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no, no, no, no

You sure wore out your welcome, baby. Not to mention all the men in town

You better think about your reputation, baby it's gone from bad to worse

And goin'down,down,down

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no shake your rattle in another playpen

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no, no, no, no

Taxicab, a big jet plane. A greyhound bus, a hot air balloon

Why don't you grab any one you can. And leave by tonight it wouldn't be too soon

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no shake your rattle in another playpen

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no, no, no, no

Well, there must be a million places that a woman like you can go

Cause you nasty little Juliet you ran out of Romeos

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no shake your rattle in another playpen

No, no, no you'll never make love in this town again

No, no, no, no, no, no

No, no, no, no, no, no
