

Caesars, Candy Kane

Sometimes I feel like I'm drifting too far
I think I'm losing sight of the shore
But my sweet girl she will catch my fall
And then I'm not so lost any more

You're my candy kane
My sugar love Oooh my!
Oooh my candy kane
My sugar love Oooh my!
My candy kane!

Oh baby I don't care if you're skinny or fat
Or just how heavy glasses you wear
Cause the way you breathe down the back of my neck
Makes me feel just like a billionaire

You're my candy kane
My sugar love Oooh my!
Oooh my candy kane
My sugar love Oooh my!
My candy kane!
