An elf is mowing the lawn
And a duck is quacking
Pachyderms are really just fish
Number fives are laughing
Mullets grow beyond your lungs
Chicken fetus' don't rupture
When I send you into space
Word to your mother

God is eating pie once again
God is eating pie
God is eating pie once again

An eyeball needs to be sharp
Shakin' bakin' Jamakin
The dog is too lazy to chew
Seven pushbrooms were taken
Smelly buttlers won't touch you bum
Elvis burns in hell
Boats in thimbuls aren't what they seem
Monkeys hide in a shell

God is eating cod once again
God is eating cod
God is eating cod once again

Snoozy redevous at ninty-three, five
Wastepails lick the sofa
Albino peacocks turn into the crust
Never open a gopher
If a beaver dangles in a tree
Just go fly a snorkel
Bealzabub is always a square
Now I ride a Jorkel

God is eating God once again
God is eating God
God is eating God once again
God is eating God
I am eating God and I'm done
I am eating God
I am eating God and I'm done
