

Cage 9, Remember December

Remember December

I've been wonderin'
what's it gonna be like when it all goes down.
I've been thinkin'
where will I go - what the hell am I gonna do with myself.
Where will I go?
What will I do?
Don't know for sure.
One thing is true.

I'll remember december
and how it split my world in two.
I'll remember december
how about you.

Will there be world war?
Will there be world peace?
Will the aliens your mind erase?
Where will I go?
What will I do?
Don't know for sure.
One thing is true.

I'll remember december
and how it split my world in two.
I'll remember december
how about you.

We become stronger with every breath.
We will live longer even in death.
Women and children first.
I don't want to be lame,
but I'll never be the same.

Maybe we'll live on the run.
Maybe we'll just come undone.
Maybe we'll be satellites.
Maybe finally get it right.
Baby get some sleep tonight
cuz maybe things will be alright.
