

Cage The Elephant, Ready To Let Go

Sun went down, sun went down, over Pompeii On both sides the vow was broken Oh my my, I'm the one Tryin' to hide this damage done One day, all our secrets will be spoken as we slow danced

I became your statue, frozen times I wonder, are we just a puff of smoke underneath this bed of ashes still withholding everything like we were never close

don't you worry baby
no sense trying to change it I ma strike these matches
never had control
I am ready to let go, no
was I fooling myself
I ma spread these ashes
never had control
I am ready, I am ready
I am ready to let go sun went down, she went down over Pompeii oh holy ground our vows were broken we made up

we broke bread I was blue, your dress was red ain;t it strange we both knew this was coming

as we slow danced

no sense trying to change it
never had control
was I fooling myself
never had control
I am ready, I am ready
I am ready to let go
