

Cake, Palm Of Your Hand

When the house was standing
You'd never have believed it
When the house was standing
You'd never have believed
The bricks and mortar have all given way
At first they resisted but then they began to sway
How can you say forever is at your command
How can you say the future's in the palm
In the palm of your hand...

When the house was standing
You'd never have believed it
When the house was standing
You'd never have believed
That gaping hole was once a foundation
Where you stand now were tools in the basement
How can you say forever is at your command
How can you say the future is in the palm
The palm of your hand
