Cal Smith, At The Sight Of You

I go all to pieces at the sight of of you I tried to look the other way when you're around But that takes more strenght than can be found I just get weak as memories pass through I go all to pieces at the sight of you You've hurt me so many times that I've lost track Yet given half a chance I take you back You're the master of my life and there's nothing I can do I go all to pieces at the sight of you How could anyone control me so completely And make me do the crazy things I do Little things like forgiving you for being so untrue I go all to pieces at the sight of you (steel) How could anyone... I go all to pieces at the sight of you
