

Calabrese, Vampires Don't Exist

Standing in the darkness
Smoking cigarettes
Looking through your window
Waiting and watching
When I woke up from the death
I was dug 6 feet under the earth
In a casket, screaming

Remember this
That vampires don't exist
It was only a kiss
It was only a kiss
Woah, ohh
Woah, ohh

When they come for you
When you're fast asleep
We guarantee you that it's only...
And just a dream you will know
When your heart's in your throat
You will choke: "It's not real!"

Remember this
That vampires don't exist
It was only a kiss
It was only a kiss
Woah, ohh
Woah, ohh

Remember this
That vampires don't exist
It was only a kiss
It was only a kiss
Woah, ohh
Woah, ohh

Remember this
That vampires...
Remember this
That vampires...
Remember this
That vampires...
Remember this
That vampires...
Bite!
