

Calexico, Spokes

Started talking to a couple of wedded strangers sitting down on motorcycles who passed on the highway stepped into the service station took a piss, got water bought fuel to ride

blood is flowing and mountains are blurring there is something stirring way down inside

barely know
my homebase home
seems i'm rarely there
for any share of time

the neighborhood's the same they all remember my name holding no reservations the newness is wearing in checked my eyes to see if they had spokes see if they are moving see if they had spokes see if there is somewhere else to ride

my airbase home
before i ride
