

Caliban, I Believe

I believe in my dreams for that as long as I will breathe. I will never sacrifice myself for you again...

Chorus:

I won't be chained to you, my heart needs something new.

Believe

I will give you....I believed in what I saw, in what I had done.

I'll keep my eyes wide open to satisfy myself more than once again.

I will give you nothing more!

Can't you see how I feel?

Chorus:

I won't be chained to you, my heart needs something new.
