

Calibretto 13, Sweet Little Grandma

I had a Grandma, who was insane and oh she had the sweetness of a striped candy cane (hey!) and my old grandma, she owned a gun (uh-huh) and one day she said to me "sonny, i want to have some fun" i said "oh dear grandma whatcha talkin about?" she looked at me with crazy eyes and then she started to shout you've always been my favorite i'll always love you the most because you brownies and cookies and cakes, make no mistake about that grandma, they're so good but i think its time for you to die, 'cause i wanna see your ghost
