

Calibretto, I'll Show The World

I need a job
I need somethin' to show me I ain't nothin'.
I need money, I need moolah, and I need it fast.
I need a job I gotta start workin'.
I'm getting sick and tired of moochin'.
There are things I want to do, and I need cash.
But I'll show the world.
They say I'm wrong but I know I'm right.
I'll show the world with my God by my side.
I'll show the world.
Maybe I'm a dreamer far from reality.
They see a loser, baby, when they look at me.
I should conform to this society,
But I say no thanks cause I'm gonna reach my dream.
And I'll show the world...
They call me clown. People look at me and frown.
But I'm followin' Jesus, and He's got my crown .
Maybe I should grow-up, but I'm in it way to deep.
Maybe I'm a disappointment.
I'm the family's black sheep.
But I'll show the world...
