

Calico System, Soon I'll Be There

Right now you're a part of mine
Confessed it before, the bastard of mine
And all the possibilities that you're still alive
Right now you're a part of mine
Confessed it before and I'll survive all the way

Right now you can testify you're right
Right now you ain't justify and take my life
I'll fly far away

And all these things, we give we give to you
You just take away from me

Soon I'll be there, and soon I'll be there
I'll be there

This is my promise to myself
This is my promise to myself
Fly away
Fly away
Fly away from here
