

Calla, Sanctify

I have it planned in my mind
I'm comin' at you from behind
When your guard is down
When you least expect it
I'm gonna find out a way
For me to wallow in your ways
And idolize from the inside

I'll learn to deal with your kind
Manipulate the divine
And sanctify... have patience

You'll never know I was there
I'm gonna catch you unaware
I sympathize cut you down to size

Merciful cold cold hands
I feel for you simply because you're mine... I need you
I beg you... Forgive you

All for you. By default
For you all this
It's all, all for you
My fall for you
