

Callenish Circle, Suffer My Disbelief

I'm hearing your reproachful words / Within seconds my rage is blackening me out / This feeling is way too much for me / I'm crying out my disbelief / Can't handle you showing discontent / After all this time you do not know me at all / Can't you just handle the truth / You're letting me down forevermore / Reality becoming crystal-clear / Don't bother me with your pathetic dreams / You stigmatised my fate / I would die for seeing you suffer my disbelief / This is the end of the line / Not endless after all / You've got to get away from here / Far away from here
