

Cam Hodges, Forgot My Shoes

If I was rude to you
I'm sorry ma'am I'm just so confused
You see I tried to run away without my shoes
Just come a little closer dear
I've got a penny to make things clear
I know that home doesn't feel like home without your father
And it's over

Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this air without believing
Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this room
You try to fill this room without him there

Am I susceptible
I feel like I'm stuck behind these rules
And the only way out is to tell you how I feel
Just come a little closer here
I promise you that I'll make things clear
I know there's no easy way out but the holes in the wall might tell

Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this air without believing
Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this room
You try to fill this room
Oh don't hold back let 'em through, let 'em in, let it burn
It will all feel right in the morning

If I was rude to you
I'm sorry ma'am I'm just so abused
See I tried to run away without my shoes

Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this air without believing
Breathing, they just stop breathing
Then you try to fill this room
You try to fill this room without him there
