

Camberwell Now, Mystery Of The Fence

Translate these words into your mother tongue:
Mystery of the fence, ministry of defence.
A change of handwriting, a different understanding.
Central office of information.

Send reinforcements, we're going to advance,
Blend reason with nonsense, we're dying to dance.
Chinese whispers, the language of rumour,
Central office of information.

And as we push back the frontiers of science,
So we unfold the secrets of silence,
And as we unfold the secrets of silence,
So we must live with the sound of sirens.

Military bombard our sisters with micro-wave weapons.
Military bombard our fathers with micro-wave weapons.
Military bombard our children with micro-wave weapons,
Central office of information.
