Camden, Hey Man

Hey man, where are you now Are you alive somehow I thought you would take the plane Never to be seen or heard again Hey man, do you believe I'm sorry 'cause of your grief Fuck you I can't rely On anyone who's word is on stand-by I thought you thought I did not know I thought you thought I did not know it I thought that you thought I thought you thought I did not know it Hey man I do confess I'm happy you're in this mess This time I'm not your nurse I only hope it will get worse I thought you thought I did not know I thought you thought I did not know it I thought that you thought I thought you thought I did not know it
