

Camel, Irish Air

Traditional Gaelic/John Morris
In this quiet place I stand alone, from my homeland far away.
And my empty heart cannot recall, the forgotten dreams that brought me joy

Had I ways to shed the wasted years, I would travel to my kin.
and with strength and faith in God above, there in Ireland I would gladly die.