

Camel, Refugee

There's a rumor flying through the air;
Paranoia's creeping everywhere.
You're gonna raise a wall -
to draw the line.

You say you've got your reasons
I hear them all the time
You say it's talking treason
and a crime...
to question why.

Don't you know I've seen this all before?
History repeats itself once more.
I don't want to go -
and I can't stay.

You say you've got your reasons
I hear them all the time.
You say it's talking treason
and a crime...
to question why.

I don't want to be a refugee,
I just want a single guarantee.
I don't want to be a refugee,
I just want the right to disagree.
