

Camera Obscura, Big Love

It was a big love, she said
That's why it took ten years to get her out
Of your head
We watched you swoon
As she peacocked the room
We heard you cry
It's time to say goodbye

It was a big love, she said
The kind of big love that took its toll on your bed
We watched you break
The more she would take
We heard you cry
It's time to say goodbye

Oh honey don't go back there
You know there's no room for you there
Honey don't go back there
Don't you dare

It was a big love, she said
The kind of big love that made you easily led
And we thought you'd leave
The more she deceived
We heard you cry
It's time to say goodbye

Oh honey don't go back there
You know there's no room for you there
Honey don't go back there
You know there's no room for you there
Honey don't go back there
You know there's no room for you there
Honey don't go back there
Don't you dare

Just let your hand slip down, imagine I'm there now
Just let your hand slip down, imagine I'm there now
Just let your hand slip down, imagine I'm there now
Just let your hand slip down, imagine...
