

Camila Cabello, Godspeed

I don't wanna be at this party anymore
I don't think your jokes sound funny anymore
All these shoes I can't dance in, what for?
Let me let this out, barefoot on the floor

And they're gonna say I should probably up the meds
That some things should've stayed in my head
I'm tired of playing pretend
Stop driving, it's a dead end

We're living in a ghost world
We're living in a past life
If everything could stay the same
Wouldn't it be nice?
But you know me, you know me, I-

Always know just when to leave
When the night is past its peak
And I hope you find some peace
Godspeed

Peace is so elusive
Joy is so elusive
Kisses to my muses
Truces for the bruises
I got real life angels
Got me when I lose it
If I gotta burn a bridge
They'll help me light the fuses

Sometimes I just lose it
Thoughts can be abusive
Times where I lose sight of love, the real reason I do this 15 since I do this
26, I choose this

We're living in a ghost world
We're living in a past life
If everything could stay the same
Wouldn't it be nice?

But you know me, you know me, I-
Always know just when to leave
When the night is past its peak
And I hope you find some peace

Godspeed
Godspeed
Godspeed
Godspeed

I let you go and I feel more like me
I wish you well, but far away from me
Godspeed
